REMARKS

In an Office Action mailed September 28, 2004, the declaration was objected to, the Specification was objected to because of an informality, and claims 1, 2, and 4-20 were rejected based on the judicially-created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting. In response thereto, Applicant submits herewith a substitute declaration that, as opposed to the original declaration, correctly identifies Applicant's citizenship. Applicant also amends the Specification to correct an informality in the header to paragraph [0001] identified by the Examiner. Finally Applicant files herewith a Terminal Disclaimer, thereby obviating the double patenting rejection.

Therefore Applicant(s) respectfully submit that the present application is now in condition for allowance. Accordingly, the Examiner is requested to issue a Notice of Allowance for all pending claims.

Applicant(s) does not believe that any additional fees are due, but if the Commissioner believes additional fees are due, the Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge any fees which may be required, or credit any overpayment, to Deposit Account Number .

Respectfully submitted,
